

What do we offer?

1. Recording albums, EPs, and singles at leading US recording studios;
2. Vocal lessons;
3. Best sound engineers and music producers;
4. Mixing and arrangement;
5. Preparation and transition of copyright

Core performances:

1. Recording is performed by highly skilled professionals, taking into account all your wishes.
2. We guarantee high quality of recording and individual approach to each client.
3. Various music styles and recording trends backed by modern equipment and instruments.
4. You may have a professional vocal teacher at your service

Our vocal teacher:

- Assist you in all matters relating to:
 - Articulation
 - Voice training
 - Literate pronunciation or vocal (intonation)
- Provide all relevant explanations and help you in recording songs of any style

Our advantages

High quality

Best equipment

We provide a full range of services from recording to training and transfer of copyright

We know how to make your musical product competitive in show-business market

The entire work process is subject to a confidentiality agreement

Guaranteed obtaining a copyright registration certificate

Music products recorded at American recording studios give you an opportunity to enter the world stage